

BULLETIN OF
THE FACULTY OF EDUCATION
WAKAYAMA UNIVERSITY
— HUMANITIES SCIENCE —

No.56 February 2006

CONTENTS

A Seeking for the Methodology of Sociography —On the Interpretive Approach to the Expressive Actions among Grass Roots— Yoritsugu YONEDA	1
The effects of western music on Japanese vocal production Yumi SHIMADA, Yoko OGAWA & Hiroshi YASUDA	17
Documents and Literature on Kisak TAMAI —In Memory of the Centennial Anniversary of His Death—	25
Body and Analogy ; The Epistemology of Body on the Discourse of Personal Health in the Edo era(1). Mihoko KATAFUCHI	49
Design of kakefukusa and Gift Culture in Japan	57
Traditional Farm Houses and Living in Mountain Villages—In the Case of Two Districts in Wakayama Prefecture— (Part 1) Housing Life	67
Traditional Farm Houses and Living in Mountain Villages—In the Case of Two Districts in Wakayama Prefecture— (Part 2) Use of Water	75
An Investigation into the Demilitarization of Wartime English Language Textbooks Yukari ISOBE & Haruo ERIKAWA	83
A Translation of “The Fight” from Dylan Thomas’s Portrait of the Artist as a Young Dog	91
A Translation of Virginia Woolf’s “Monday or Tuesday” from The Haunted House (1945)	99
Landscape Aesthetics and the Picturesque : Trees and Weeds in Travel Writing and Garden Theory	101
Ralph Ellison’s “Twentieth-Century Fiction and the Black Mask of Humanity”	109
On Orson Scott Card’s Speaker for the Dead	119
A Study of Current Japanese Passive Sentences;using Contrastive Analysis with Korean Youngja CHEON & Suguru KASIWABARA	129
eine Moralphilosophie von den Festtagen	162
The living condition of slums in Osaka City at the beginning of the 20th Century— In comparison to those in Tokyo—	176