

Table of Contents

Preface

Joseph M. Cheer	3
1. Introduction to Wakayama Tourism Review Vol. 3 Ricardo Nicolas Prozano	4
2. Events: Mirror to the past self and beacon for the future self? Faith Ong	6
3. A virtual tour for change: Exploring transformational potential Meghan L. Muldoon	8
4. The atmospheric gaze as a guiding principle in destination development Michael Volgger	11
5. Exploring the constraints of women entrepreneurs in developing countries: Evidence from the literature Kaede Sano & Nozomi Saito	14
6. Socially engaged art tourism, in-migrants micro-entrepreneurship, and peripheral island revitalization Meng Qu	17
7. Responsible animal tourism in Japan: Opportunities for a ‘guilt-free’ future Émilie Crossley	20
8. Journey to well-being: On the role of culture and place in Japanese spiritual tourism Januschka Budimka Irmtraut Schmidt, Leonieke Bolderman, Peter Groote & Arie Stoffelen	23
9. Tourism, rural revitalization and young entrepreneurs Kazue Nakamoto & Joseph M. Cheer	27
10. International working holiday makers in the Niseko area: Research agenda Kyoko Morikoshi & Hayato Nagai	31
11. Cultural tourism in extraordinary times: Hobart’s 2021 Dark Mofo festival, COVID-19 and Australia’s state human bio-security regimes Philip Hayward	36
12. Addressing water scarcity in the Japanese tourism sector: A pro-environmental behaviour approach Husna Zainal Abidin & Pablo Pereira-Doel	40
13. Gender-based violence in tourism field research: An immediate action plan Heike Schänzel	44