

Message from the Director, Center for Tourism Research, Wakayama University

It is my pleasure as Director, Center for Tourism Research at Wakayama University to be bringing you Volume 2 of the Wakayama Tourism Review (WTR). The work in this issue is a small sample of the research that Members and Visiting Fellows are undertaking and we hope the knowledge shared gives good for thought. I sincerely thank all of the authors for their contributions and look forward to hosting you at Wakayama University soon.

Yours sincerely,
