

Table of Contents

Message from the Director, Center for Tourism Research, Wakayama University Etsuko Higashi .....	3
Preface Husna Zainal Abidin .....	4
1. Introduction to Wakayama Tourism Review , Vol. 5 Hayato Nagai .....	5
2. Unveiling the distinctive characteristics of women entrepreneur networks in the tourism industry of developing countries: Insights from the literature Nozomi Saito, Lisa Ruhanen, Kaede Sano &amp; Seiko Shirasaka .....	6
3. Value co-creation in smart tourism: A service ecosystem perspective Hao Sun .....	10
4. Make it or break it: The tourism industry and the fight against income inequalities Niccolò Comerio &amp; Alessandra Centinaio .....	14
5. The connotations of kankō in Japanese contemporary popular culture: Focusing on polysemic meanings of kankō in Haruomi Hosono's 1980s activities Riichi Endo &amp; Nagisa Nakaue .....	18
6. Challenges of Kyushu Olle as a sustainable tourism resource: A questionnaire-based survey in Japan Jaewook Kim, Yuji Yashima &amp; Shigeru Toyoshima .....	21
7. Exploring the issues and potential of astro-tourism development in developing countries: A case study of Mongolia Koki Sawada, Hidehiko Agata &amp; Masami Okyudo .....	24
8. Characteristics of a successful community business: Case studies of Japan and South Korea Damon Drummond, Jihyang Lee &amp; Yuji Yashima .....	30